How Is Your Data Collected?

JB Structures may collect the categories of information listed above in a variety of ways. For example, data might be collected through employment agencies, application forms, CVs or resumes; obtained from your passport or other identity documents such as your driving licence; from forms completed by you at the start of or during employment (such as benefit nomination forms); from correspondence with you; or through interviews, meetings or other assessments.

In some cases, JB Structures may collect personal data about you from third parties, such as references supplied by former employers, information from employment background check providers, information from credit reference agencies and information from criminal records checks permitted by law.

Data will be stored in a range of different places, including in your personnel file and IT systems (including JB Structures' email system).

Why Does JB Structures Process Personal Data?

JB Structures needs to process all the categories of data in the list above primarily to enter into an employment contract with you and to meet its obligations under your employment contract. For example, it needs to process your data to provide you with an employment contract, to pay you in accordance with your employment contract and to administer benefit, pension and insurance entitlements.

In some cases, JB Structures needs to process data to ensure that it is complying with its legal obligations. For example, it is required to check an employee's entitlement to work in the UK, to deduct tax, to comply with health and safety laws and to enable employees to take periods of leave to which they are entitled.

In other cases, JB Structures has a legitimate interest in processing personal data before, during and after the end of the employment relationship. Processing employee data allows JB Structures to:

- check you are legally entitled to work in the UK
- run recruitment and promotion processes
- maintain accurate and up-to-date employment records and contact details (including details of who to contact in the event of an emergency), and records of employee contractual and statutory rights
- pay you and, if you are an employee or deemed employee for tax purposes, deducting tax and National Insurance contributions (NICs)
- operate and keep a record of disciplinary and grievance processes, to ensure acceptable conduct within the workplace
- operate and keep a record of employee performance and related processes, to plan for career development, and for succession planning and workforce management purposes
- enroll you in a pension arrangement in accordance with our statutory automatic enrolment duties
- making decisions about salary reviews and compensation
- education, training and development requirements
- operate and keep a record of absence and absence management procedures, to allow effective workforce management and ensure that employees are receiving the pay or other benefits to which they are entitled
- obtain occupational health advice, to ensure that it complies with duties in relation to individuals with disabilities and ensuring JB Structures makes provisions where necessary for reasonable adjustment, meet its obligations under health and safety law, ensures you are able to carry out the duties of your role, and ensure that employees are receiving the pay or other benefits to which they are entitled
- operate and keep a record of other types of leave (including maternity, paternity, adoption, parental and shared parental leave), to allow effective workforce management, to ensure that JB Structures complies with duties in relation to leave entitlement, and to ensure that employees are receiving the pay or other benefits to which they are entitled
- ensure effective general HR and business administration
- to monitor use of our information and communication systems to ensure compliance with our IT policies
- equal opportunities monitoring
- provide references on request for current or former employees
- respond to, and defend against legal claims
- monitor staff locations & whereabouts in order to meet fire safety regulations, health & safety compliance, and to pay you accurately for the work you do

Some of the above grounds for processing will overlap and there may be several grounds which justify JB Structures' use of your personal information.

We will not use your personal information for purposes other than that for which it was collected, unless we reasonably consider that this is required, and the reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use it for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and explain the legal basis which allows us to do so. Please be aware that we may process your personal information without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above, where it is required or permitted by law.

The legal basis on which we will process your personal information is to carry out our obligations under employment law, equality laws, health & safety laws and to protect your vital interests.

Particularly Sensitive Personal Data

Some special categories of personal data, such as information about physical or mental health or disability, is processed to ensure your health and safety in the workplace and to assess your fitness to work, to provide workplace adjustments, to monitor and manage sickness absence and to administer benefits.

Where JB Structures processes other special categories of personal data, such as information about ethnic origin, sexual orientation or religion or belief, this is done for the purposes of equal opportunities monitoring. This is to carry out its obligations and exercise specific rights in relation to employment.

Very occasionally, we may process this type of information where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests, or someone else's and you are not capable of giving your consent or you have already made the information public.

Who Has Access to Data?

Your information may be shared internally (including payroll), your line manager, managers in the business area in which you work and IT staff if access to the data is necessary for performance of their roles.

JB Structures will share personal data with other departments within the company as part of our regular reporting activities on company performance, in the context of business reorganisation or company restructuring exercise, for system maintenance support and hosting of data,

JB Structures shares your data with third parties in order to obtain pre-employment references from other employers, obtain employment background checks from third-party providers and obtain necessary criminal records checks from the Disclosure and Barring Service. JB Structures may also share your data with third parties in the context of a sale of some or all of its business. In those circumstances the data will be subject to confidentiality arrangements.

JB Structures also shares your data with third parties that process data on its behalf, in connection with payroll, the provision of benefits and the provision of occupational health services and for fleet management and compliance purposes. We may also be required to share a limited amount of your personal data with our clients or main contractors for the purposes of site health & safety, occupational health monitoring, training & competency assessment or other contractual project requirements.

All third-party service providers are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal information in line with our policies. We will not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

We may process your data upon request, in order to provide a reference to a prospective employer of yours. The company will not transfer your data to countries outside the European Economic Area.

How Does JB Structures Protect Data?

JB Structures takes the security of your data seriously. JB Structures has internal policies and controls in place to try to ensure that your data is not lost, accidentally destroyed, misused or disclosed, and is not accessed except by its employees in the performance of their duties.

In addition, we will limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. Where JB Structures engages third parties to process personal data on its behalf, they do so on the basis of written instructions, are under a duty of confidentiality and are obliged to implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security of data. Details of these measures can be found in our GDPR Policy.

For How Long Does JB Structures Keep Data?

We will only retain your personal information for as long as is necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements. JB Structures will hold your personal data at least for the duration of your employment however, to determine the specific appropriate retention period for personal data, we will consider the amount, nature and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purpose for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means and the applicable legal requirements.

The retention periods which we have determined are as follows:

What If You Do Not Provide Personal Data?

You have some obligations under your employment contract to provide JB Structures with data. In particular you are required to report absences from work and may be required to provide information about disciplinary or other matters under the implied duty of good faith. You may also have to provide JB Structures with data in order to exercise your statutory rights, such as in relation to statutory leave entitlements. Failing to provide the data may mean that you are unable to exercise your statutory rights.

Certain information, such as contact details, your right to work in the UK and payment details, have to be provided to enable JB Structures to enter a contract of employment with you. If you do not provide other information, this will hinder JB Structures ability to administer the rights and obligations arising as a result of the employment relationship efficiently.

Changes to This Privacy Notice

We reserve the right to update this notice at any time, and we will provide you with a new notice when we make updates. We may also notify you from time to time in other ways about the processing of your personal data.
